(Judeo-Christian Response Message)

(155 words)

This message (above) comes from “critical race theory,” which judges everybody based on their skin color or where they were born. I reject the whole idea. Each individual human being bears the image of God. We must treat each other exactly as we would treat God’s most special creation. The Bible explains that people must be judged by his or her individual qualities and actions. The Ten Commandments give rules for individuals to follow – the relationships and duties are Human to God and Human to Human. Each human must be equal before the law and treated with equal respect and dignity, regardless of race, color, or any category membership. All I see from critical race theory people is nonstop name-calling, and dividing people up by category so they can resent, fight, and even kill one another. Critical race theory is hateful, and with God’s help I reject it and will resist it to the end.
